Biography

ELIZABETHLAOFFICIAL.COM

Elizabeth La is a Southern Californian singer-songwriter who has been singing and writing since she was 8 years old. She began pursuing a music career at 13 years old, and was a student of Seth Riggs (vocal coach of Michael Jackson and Madonna).

She has released a variety of singles on Spotify, Itune, etc. In 2011, she was selected as a young talent to record “Children's Prayer,” produced by Michael Schuman. She has sung for the Miss Asia USA Pageant at the Biltmore Hotel and the Mulligan Project. After a musical hiatus, Elizabeth returned to the stage with the release of her first EP, “Silver Sterling Gem” in 2019. In 2025, she sang the National Anthem for Congressman Derek Tran for his in-district swearing in ceremony.

She has had experiences singing for bands (Saints Oasis) and performing solo, playing at a variety of events and venues throughout Orange County (“The House of Blues”, “The Hanger”), Long Beach (“The Wine Bar”, “Ficklewood”), and has sang throughout the globe, traveling throughout LA, Mexico, Italy, France, and Vietnam.

Her collaborative experience includes working with a variety of different artists and producers in EDM, Rock, Jazz, Blues, Indie, Alternative, Pop, and more. Outside of music, she is a Political Activist and AI tech Representative.

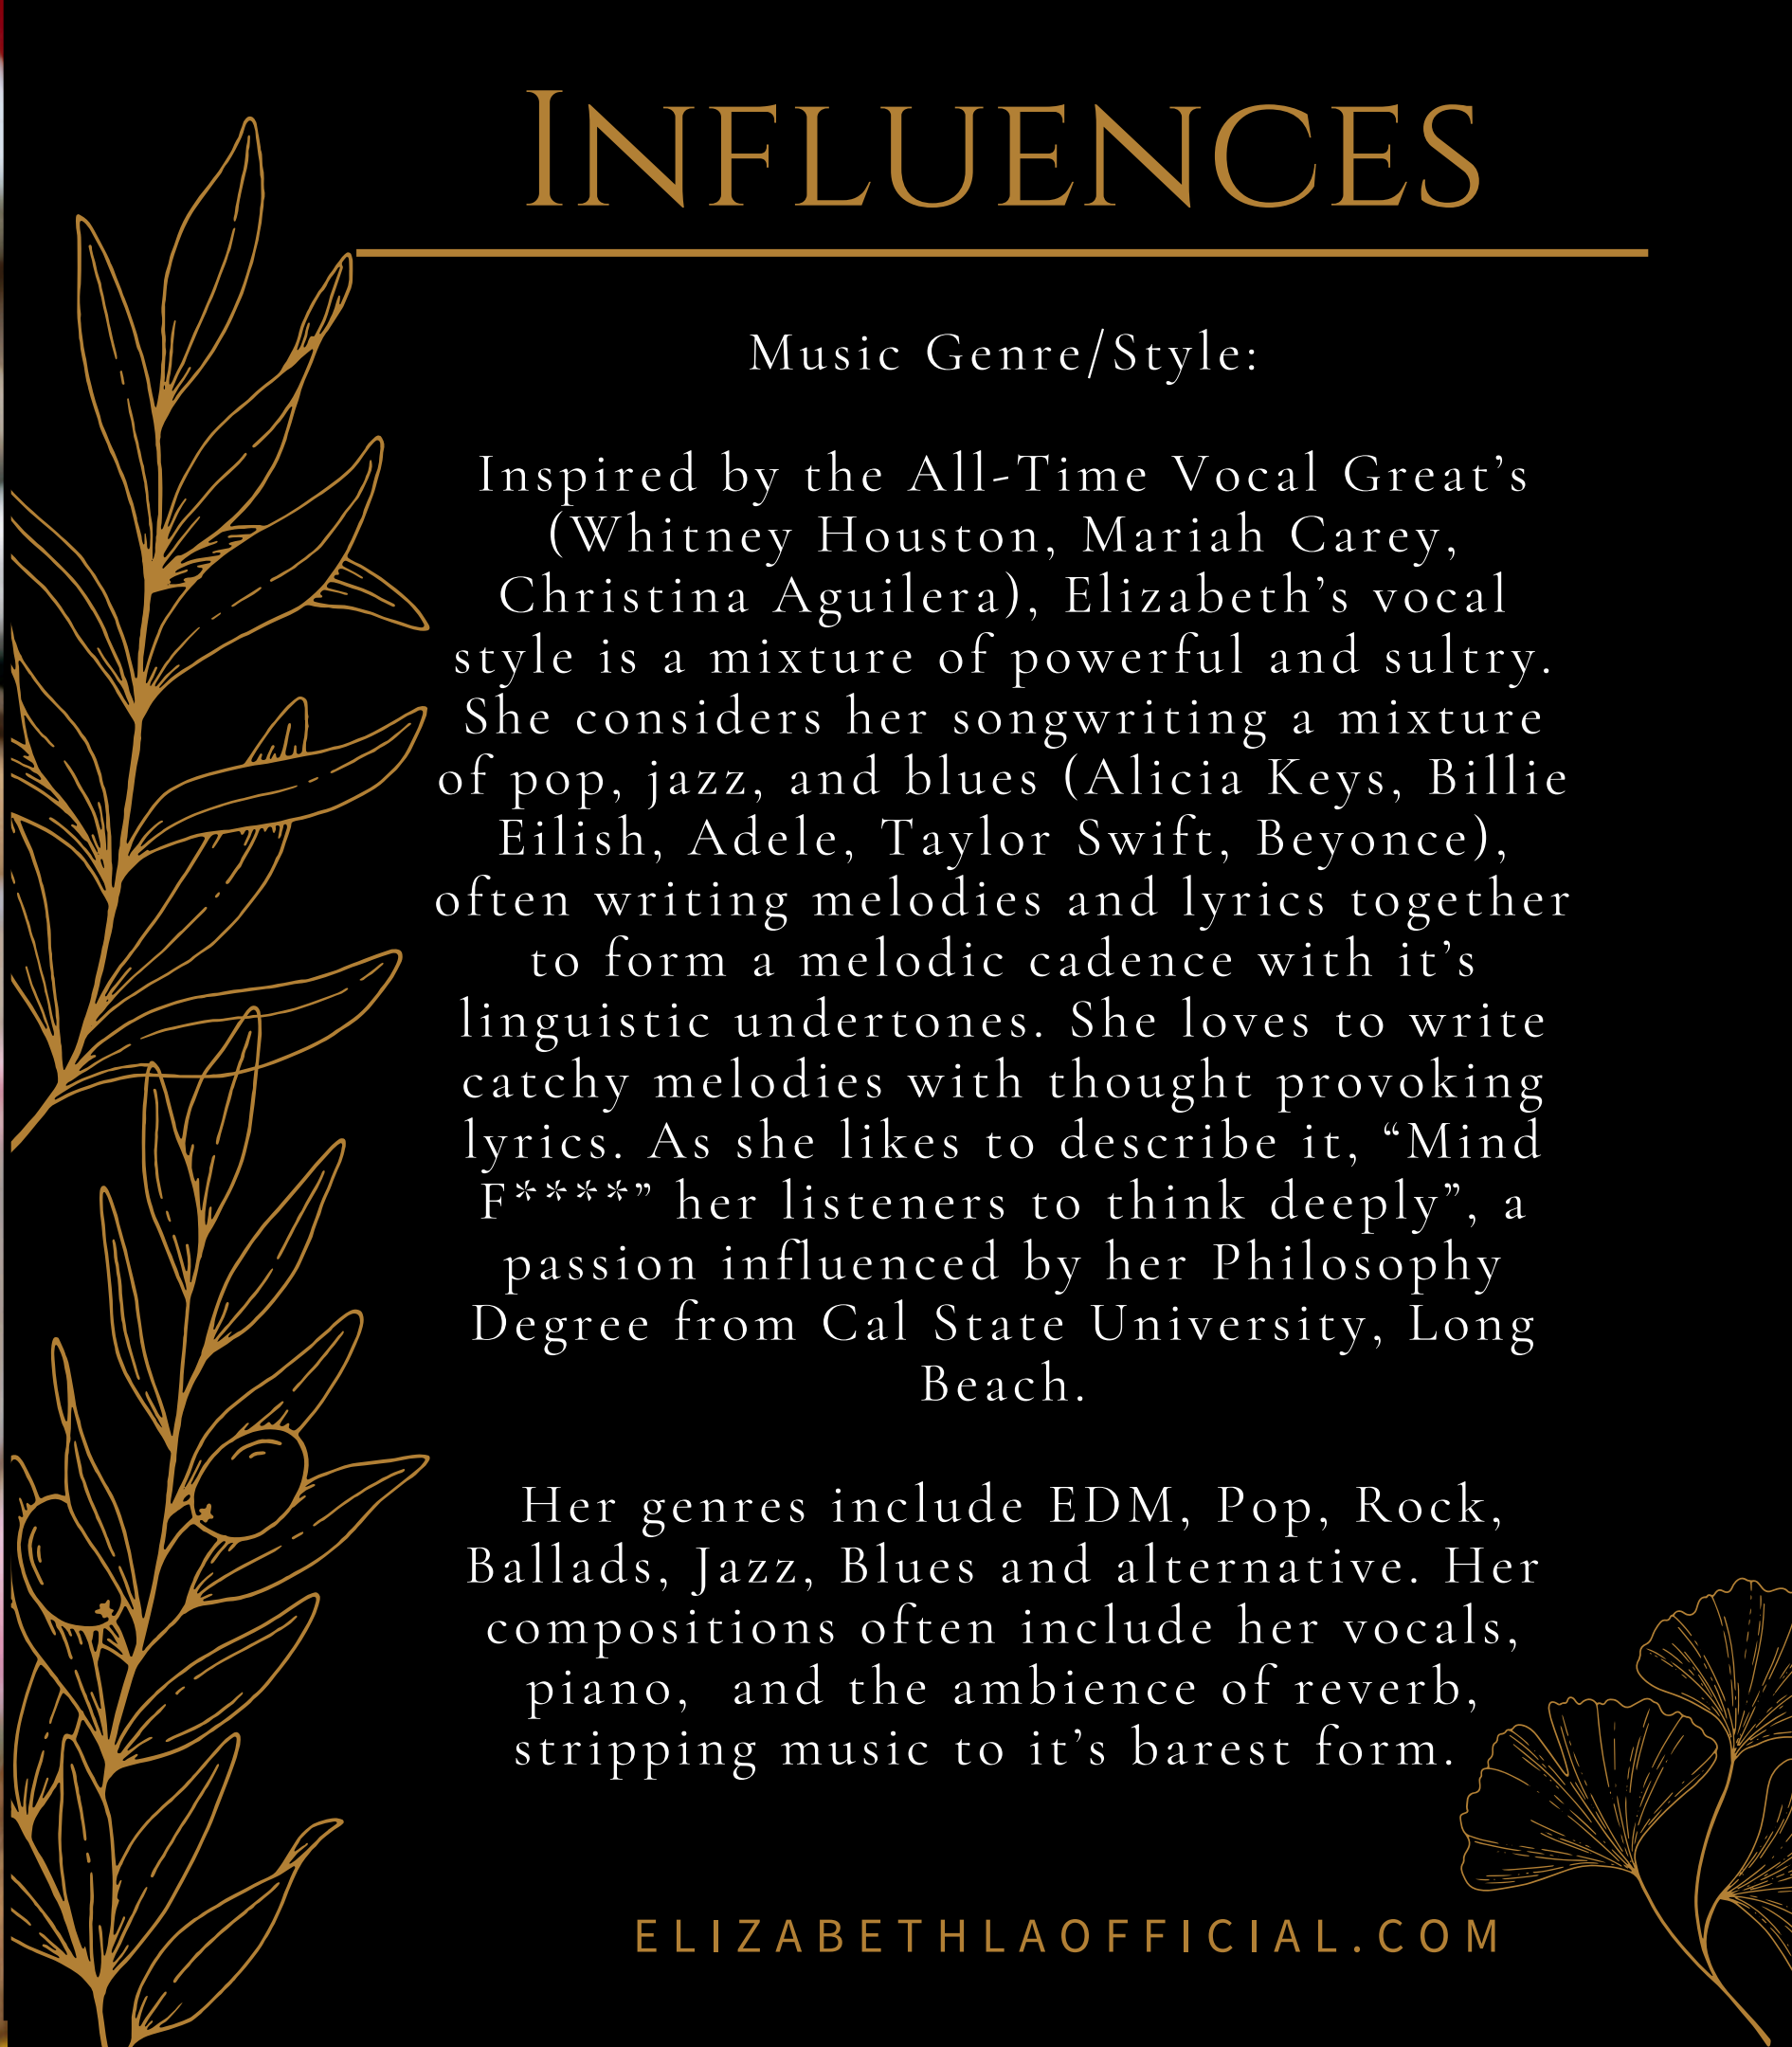

INFLUENCES

Music Genre/Style:

Inspired by the All-Time Vocal Great's (Whitney Houston, Mariah Carey, Christina Aguilera), Elizabeth's vocal style is a mixture of powerful and sultry. She considers her songwriting a mixture of pop, jazz, and blues (Alicia Keys, Billie Eilish, Adele, Taylor Swift, Beyonce), often writing melodies and lyrics together to form a melodic cadence with it's linguistic undertones. She loves to write catchy melodies with thought provoking lyrics. As she likes to describe it, "Mind F*" her listeners to think deeply", a passion influenced by her Philosophy Degree from Cal State University, Long Beach.

Her genres include EDM, Pop, Rock, Ballads, Jazz, Blues and alternative. Her compositions often include her vocals, piano, and the ambience of reverb, stripping music to it's barest form.
